Chief Randolph received a list from the adjutant-general yesterday of 100 men who are charged with having deserted from the First Mississippi regiment and Quave's name was on the list. COAST INFANTRY STILL PROGRESSING

Has Reached the Platoon Drill Which Is Considered Difficult—Other Live Company Notes.

(GULFPORT)

The Mississippi Coast Infantry Co. is still making rapid advances in drilling and has reached the platoon drill which is especially difficult for beginners. But as has already been stated, the boys are willing to learn and follow their officers, without a murmur. Be it said, however, that the officers are reasonable men who know the limitations of raw recruits and will not impose any hardships. Recently the company did "double time" on the streets in the city and leading out, using different formations, which won no end of praise from the officers.

The uniforms have not come yet, but they are expected daily now and when uniformed the company will feel that it is a real part of the great military establishment of the United States.

The company lacks sixteen members from having its full quota, but the officers believe these will be forth-

Men Still Eligible Until Appear Before the Exemption Board

(GULFPORT)

Corporal John Kroenin in charge of the army recruiting station in this city has received a telegram from the general of the army which reads in part:

"After a registered person notified to appear before the board and directed to undergo physical examination, he is eligible for voluntary enlistment."

"It is requested that the applicant that applies for enlistment in the draft limit, furnish the recruiting station with a certificate or letter or telegram from the circuit clerk, stating that the applicant applying has not been accepted. If he can be accepted if physically fit. If he has been notified he is rejected. No applicant will be accepted unless he has such a letter or telegram from the circuit clerk of the draft limit, and that the applicant must have his registration before he can be accepted. The opportunity is still for the men that has not been called up."

ing of the County Teachers Association held at the high school in Pascagoula last Saturday.

Mr. Alexander's leadership in the discussions was splendid, and he succeeded in bringing expressions from most of the experienced teachers for the benefit of the younger instructors. He stressed the importance of not carrying any particular method of reciting too far, and urged that different classes required different methods of instruction.

Prof. J. J. Melvin of the Rocky Creek Consolidated school of George county spoke on "The Teacher and Her Work." Miss Nell Kell of Pascagoula assisted in the musical program.

HEALTH OFFICERS TRACE SOURCES OF MALARIA.

Blood Tests Taken From 381 School Children of Jackson County.

Working through the Jackson County Health Department, Dr. C. P. Coogle of the United States Public Health Service, took 381 specimens of blood from children in various schools over the county last month in an effort to locate malarial infections in the county. Dr. Coogle spent three days in the county and was accompanied on his rounds by Dr. W. E. Sharp, county health officer.

School trustees of rural schools are becoming interested in sanitary measures in school buildings and on the grounds, and during the last month, Dr. Sharp was called to the Lyons Consolidated school and St. Martin school to advise on installation of sewerage systems and in the case of the last named as to the location of a new building.

intention of the people of this city not to increase the tax rate for school purposes and realizing the absolute necessity of reducing the expenses of operating the schools to the lowest point consistent with efficiency, have carefully considered the matter and have reached the conclusion that the first step in the interests of economy, should be to abolish the office of superintendent of city schools. This would be a yearly saving of $2,750, and we do not believe it would seriously affect the efficiency of the schools. We urge that this course be pursued. If in the opinion of the board a superintendent is absolutely necessary, then we recommend that this work be done by the county superintendent of education, who on account of his interest in our schools, we have reason to believe will gladly serve gratis."

HARRISON COUNTY HEALTH OFFICER ATTENDS COURSE.

Dr. Dan Williams, health officer for Harrison county, was in Pascagoula Monday and assisted Mrs. Iola M. Havens at the short course for women held at her office. He gave a talk on health work. Dr. Williams is making an excellent record as health officer for Harrison county.

DEMONSTRATION TO SHOW POTENTIALITIES OF SOILS.

Demonstration fields planted to different crops in different sections of the county are very promising, and farmers are invited to visit and inspect the fields and profit by the experiments. Persons who are interested in the agricultural development of the county are also invited to inspect the fields as concrete examples of what is being done.

A field of burr clover, has been planted of L. L. Lowell's place at Big Point, and despite the very unfavorable season for this particular crop is doing splendidly. The two and one-half acre strawberry demonstration being conducted on A. Ziegenfelder's place on the River road between Pascagoula and Moss Point is also very promising.

Data will be kept on the progress of one hundred peach trees set out on the Glass place at Hurley with a view of ascertaining the possibilities of peach production in Jackson county. Mr. Glass is a citizen of New Orleans, and is improving his Jackson county property.

The schooner Otis, Capt. Fred Clinton, which arrived here Monday from Havana, was struck by a waterspout on Thursday, the 13th instant, fifteen miles west of Mobile. The vessel lost all of her lower sails. Waterspouts are omi- nous things and are to be dreaded by the seafarers especially at this season as they are of frequent occurrence in these waters.

The marriage of Miss Mamie E. George and Mr. Rodie J. Larsen took place at the cathedral in New Orleans on Mon- day, June 10th, at 8:30 a.m., Rev. Father Heffan officiating. The happy young couple, residents of this city, will make their home in Gulfport. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie H. George. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Larsen.

Capt. Samuel B. Watts, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, returned here Wednesday from a short visit to Gulf- port and Biloxi and spent the day with his uncle P. K. Mayers and brother H. B. his death was not a surprise, it came as a surprise to his relatives and friends. Deceased was born forty years ago at Burlington, New Jersey, and came to this place with his half brother, Rev. The funeral services were held at 8 o'clock Monday evening from St. John's church, Rev. C. B. Crawford, of Biloxi, officiat- ing. The interment was made in Mach- pelah cemetery. Rev. Chipman has the sympathy of the people of this city in his bereavement.

Commencement at Infant Jesus Academy.

On Monday and Tuesday nights the twenty-fourth commencement exercises of the Infant Jesus Academy, conducted by the Sisters of Perpetual Adoration, were held in the Academy Hall. There were only two graduates, Misses Irene Denny and Irene McFaul, but they did honor to the institute. The programs on both nights consisted of music, song, drama and recitations and were very choice, displaying zealous studying on the part of the pupils and zealous teach- ing on the part of the Sisters. It has not been many years since this Sister- hood came into the country. Educa- tional matters take up their entire at- tention and they do it justice in all its branches. A large concourse of friends and patrons of the Convent attended the exhibition on Monday night for the boys and Tuesday night for the girls. The diplomas and premiums were awarded by Rev. Father W. Ten Brink.

The Baptist State Convention will meet in Hazlehurst on July 12th. About 600 delegates and visitors, representing 140,000 Baptists will at- tend. The annual sermon will be preached by Rev. J. W. Lee, of Grenada.

Capt. Sam B. Watts, of Lauderdale, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, will be triumphantly elected over his two clever opponents at the August primary. He is by far the best qual- ified of his opponents, as all persons who know them will readily admit. We expect Watts to have a walk-over.

—Col. Daniel Dennett, of the New Orleans Picayune was here Monday. Col. Dennett is a powerful writer on agriculture, stock raising, etc. Come again, Colonel.

—Death has invaded the happy home of Mr. L. J. Larson of this place. Two of his bright little girls have been taken suddenly away. On Friday the 10th inst. Upon closing our forms yesterday evening preparations were on foot for a grand ball at Firemen's Hall at 9 p.m. We, therefore, reserve comment thereon for next issue.

—Lawyers and others attending Court at this place can find comfortable quarters and good fare at the River Side House at $1.50 a day.

—Mr. E. L. Silva, of New Orleans, for a long time confidential clerk of the late Emile DeSmet was in town this week. He was not in his usual good health, having lately been very sick.

—Circuit Court for this county convened at the court house here last Monday, Judge S. H. Terrell presiding. The clerk has been too busy to furnish us with the full proceedings to date, but we will publish them complete next week. The case of W. H. Gill vs Dr. H. Shannon occupied a day and a half and was decided in favor of the plaintiff. We learn there is a compromise of the case in prospect. Only a few others have been tried and several compromised.

Elliot Henderson, of Pass Christian. They all seemed to have something to do, but we hardly think any of them made "piles" of money this week.

—On last Monday at 12:30 p.m., a prohibition meeting was held at the courthouse, according to appointment published. Mr. S. L. Boyers, of Ocean Springs, called the meeting to order and explained its object. Rev. O. D. Byers, of Moss Point, was chosen temporary chairman. Col. Daniel Dennett, of Brookhaven, then addressed the meeting on the subject of prohibition, after which the meeting went into permanent organization of "the Prohibition Society of Jackson County, Miss." The following were then elected: S. K. Williams, President; G. W. Davis, J. M. Pelham and G. G. Goff Vice Presidents; S. L. Boyers, Secretary, and Wm. Devroe, Treasurer. Executive Committee: S. K. Larsen family gathers for birthday celebration, Mass

Pauline Larsen was honored Aug. 11, 1990, on her 75th birthday with a party hosted by her children.

She was born Aug. 10, 1915, in Pascagoula, and has made her home in that city all her life.

Scene of the fete was the home of the honoree's son and daughter-in-law, Ricci and Deloris Larsen of Moss Point. The home was decorated with flowers and greenery.

Among the honoree's other children and their spouses, all of whom attended the celebration, are Beverly and Jim Fuss of Lothia, Md.; Ellen Pusey of Lima, Ohio; Ernie and Shirley Larsen, Betty and Charles Talley, Kenny and Carolyn Larsen, and Corky Larsen, all of Pascagoula; Polly Grubbs of Escatawpa, and Gage and Sam Branch of Woolmarket, Miss.

The highlight of the day was a home Mass celebrated by the Rev. Patrick McDermott, pastor of the honoree's home parish, Our Lady of Victories of Pascagoula.

The den of the Larsen home was filled with family and friends as the Mass was celebrated. Altar boys were Joey Larsen, Robert Talley and Lindsey Larsen. Scripture readings were offered by Suzanne Fuss, Amy Fuss, Robyn Pusey, Stephanie Branch and Elizabeth Branch. Hymns for the Mass were sung by Cathy Keyes.

BIRTHDAY BUNCH — The family of Ernest and Pauline Larsen (seated, center) gather during the 75th birthday celebration of their mother, held recently in Moss Point.

Following the service, supper and dancing were enjoyed by all. A large sheet cake centered the tea table, which was laid with lace and also held a spray of spring flowers. Guests were offered a variety of hors d'oeuvres and finger foods, as well as punch.

The honoree married Ernest Larsen on March 2, 1935. The couple makes its home in the Lake Avenue section of Pascagoula, and both are active in the OLV Parish. She is the daughter of the late Francis Delmas and Georgia Moody Bosarge.

Mrs. Larsen has nine children,

26 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. All but four of her grandchildren were able to attend the celebration.

Special guests were Manilla Dannelly and Gladys Slade, sisters-in-law of the honoree, and Morris Roy "Jodie" Bosarge, her brother.

Out of town guests included Robyn Pusey and Cathy Keyes of New Orleans, La.; Suzanne Fuss of Maryland; Amy Fuss of Washington, D.C.; Kevin Pusey, Maryah Pusey and Sarah Pusey of Memphis, Tenn.; Stephanie Branch, Cyndi Branch and Elizabeth Branch of Woolmarket.

Larsens feted on golden date

The family and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Larsen recently celebrated the joyous occasion of their golden wedding anniversary.

The Rev. Patrick McDermott and the Rev. John Burke, pastors of Our Lady of Victories Catholic Church, and the Rev. Frank Corcoran, pastor of St. Joseph's of Greenville, were celebrants of the Nuptial Mass which renewed their vows of matrimony. Witnesses were Gladys Slade and James Fuss.

For the occasion, the bride wore a two-piece white suit complemented with a chiffon blouse. With this she wore a corsage of yellow roses. Mr. Larsen wore a navy blue suit, accented with a single yellow rose as a boutonniere.

During the Mass, Mrs. Larsen carried an heirloom missal which has been used at all family weddings since 1959.

Some 23 Larsen grandchildren participated in the Mass. Altar boys were Brain Talley and Jim Fuss, and lectors were Suzanne Fuss, Robyn Pusey and Cathy Pusey.

Offering petitions were Jennifer Talley, Kelly Talley, Lara Larsen, Stephanie Branch, Cyndi Branch and Kendra Larsen. Offeratory gifts were presented by Michael Pusey and Cathy Pusey.

Presenting flowers to their grandparents in the offeratory procession were Lara Larsen, Justin Larsen, Hal Grubbs, Jennifer Talley, Kelly Talley, Bradley Talley, Robert Talley, Stephanie Branch, Cyndi Branch, David Branch, Elizabeth Branch, Kendra Larsen, Lindsey Larsen, Joey Larsen and Erin Larsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Larsen

Ushers were Chip Larsen and Chuck Grubbs. Music was presented by organist Mary Ann McNally.

A reception was held in the OLV Cafeteria following the Mass. The cafeteria was gaily decorated with lush greenery and bright yellow flowers. The refreshment and punch tables featured fern, golden ribbons and yellow chrysanthemums.

A most special feature of the reception was a memory table containing a beautifully handmade album which held personal mementoes of the couple prepared by each guest. The album was made by the couple's oldest daughter, Beverly Larsen Fuss.

Also on the table were various pictures of the couple taken through their 50 years together. A family photo wall displayed photos depicting the growing years of the Larsen children and grandchildren.

More than 300 guests enjoyed refreshments and music of the '40s era. Attendants for the afternoon celebrations were Mary Ann Holliman, Etta Kay Perek, Gayle Leslie and Michele Pierpont, all nieces of the couple. Also assisting were Donna Chandler, Marsha Goff and June Ricks.

The liturgy and reception were planned and given by the Larsen children and their spouses, including Mr. and Mrs. Jim (Beverly) Fuss of Lothian, Md.;

Mr. and Mrs. A.J. (Ellen) Pusey of Lima, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Sam (Gaye) Branch of Woolmarket, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest (Shirley) Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. Freddie (Polly) Grubbs, Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Betty) Talley, Mr. and Mrs. Kenny (Carolyn) Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. Ricci (Delorise) Larsen and Frank "Corky" Larsen, all of Pascagoula.

Mrs. Larsen is the former Pauline Bosarge. Both she and her husband are lifelong residents of Pascagoula, together attending Pascagoula High School and Louisiana State University.

Many beautiful floral offerings covered the grave, attesting the esteem in which deceased was held, and a large number of friends and relatives were present at the last rites.

Mr. Larsen was born in Handsboro, Miss., but came to Pascagoula about fifty years ago and has resided here ever since. He was married in 1894 to Miss Melvina Krebs, who survives him. He worked in the machine shops of the L. N. Dantzler Lumber Company for about forty years, and was a first lieutenant in the Pascagoula company that went to the Spanish-American war.

Family reunion marked by oak tree dedication

■ Tree symbolizes deep roots, new growth of family

By REGINA HINES

PASCAGOULA — The Larsen family's roots run deep in Jackson County.

So planting a sturdy live oak at Pine Street Park near their home was a fitting highlight of their reunion this weekend.

The nine children of Ernest "Skipper" and Pauline Bosarge Larsen, most of their 26 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren, and family connections and friends — about 100 in all — gathered at the city park Saturday morning for the dedication.

"Both our parents have Pascagoula roots going back seven to eight generations from the founding families of this area. Their roots go real deep and we have a big, close family," daughter Beverly Larsen Fuss of Lothian, Md., said.

"The main thing is the symbolism that the roots of our family compare to this mature tree. A tree seemed to represent our family as much as anything—a sturdy oak—and the character of our family—new growth and new life," she said.

The family is growing. Two more Larsen great-grandchildren will be born soon.

Planting the tree grew from an article Fuss read about a woman planting a tree on her birthday. She wanted to do the same for her father, who was 85 on March 20, but didn't have time to make the arrangements.

But after talking to brothers and sisters, they decided to dedicate the tree in honor of both their parents at their Fourth of July reunion.

Fuss said, planning the tree dedication had been an exciting experience.

"We're a family of the 90s and everyone has e-mail and that started a whole wonderful round about with that," she said.

"Everyone wanted to do something. One grandchild offered to give my tip money and even friends of theirs. It's been wonderful. From just an idea to do something simple, this has grown," she said.

Family members contributed money and time to bring the 20-year-old tree from Grand Bay to Pascagoula, son Ernie Larsen of Pascagoula said. After obtaining city permission, the tree was planted in the park. They hired the same company that handled the Beau Rivage tree work, Ernie Larsen said. A brick edging was placed around the tree and a flower bed installed.

Well-known Pascagoula residents, Ernest and Pauline Larsen have been married for 64 years. Their children are: Beverly Larsen Fuss, Lohian, Md.; Ellen Larsen-Pusey, Lima, Ohio; Ernie Larsen Jr., Pascagoula; Polly Larsen Grubbs, Moss Point; Betty Larsen Talley, Pascagoula; Gaye Larsen Branch, Ocean Springs; Kenny Larsen, Pascagoula; Ricci Larsen, Moss Point; and Corky Larsen, Pascagoula. The clan gathers here every other year.

It was decided to plant the tree at the Pine Street Park because the park is about a block and half from the Larsen home on Morgan Avenue.

The reunion weekend started with dinner at Hucks Cove in Gautier and continued Saturday night with a Mardi Gras Ball at Ricci Larsen's home at Riverwood in Moss Point.

"We have lot of good food and fun," Ellen Larsen-Pusey said.

"Being born and raised here, this is home to us. Our family roots are here and we all love and enjoy this and can't wait to get back with our extended family," she said. "We did it this year in the summer so more (family members) would be here."

"The tree is just another extension of the love we have for our mom and dad and the kids are talking about coming back and having parties under the tree for Mom and Dad. Some even said they would one day like to have an outdoor wedding there."
